Project Description (include specifically what volunteers will do):

IDFG Project Leader: _____

Agreement by Organization or Group: We offer and agree to volunteer our services without compensation in wages to accomplish the work described above to assist the Idaho Department of Fish and Game (IDFG) in its authorized activities, in accordance with the following understandings:

- We, including our participating Volunteers, will contribute our services without compensation in wages.
- This volunteer service will not confer the status of State employee on any participating Volunteers, except that while acting within the scope of this Agreement, they will probably be deemed to be as if they were State employees for purposes of the:
 - State Tort Claims Act, which protects State employees from liability for injury or damage to others while employees are acting within the scope of their duties; and
 - State Workers' Compensation Act, which authorizes compensation for work-related injury.
- Each of our participants is at least 18 years old (or if any are under 18, a parent or guardian of each consents to this Agreement as shown by his or her signature on attachment(s) to this Agreement, marked _____).
- We will provide IDFG with each participating Volunteer's name, phone number, address and Social Security Number. Each participant has certified, or before commencing work will certify, that he or she (1) has been informed of the health and physical condition requirements for doing the work and project location including altitude; and (2) knows of no physical condition or limitation that may adversely affect his or her ability to do this work. We will supervise our participants' day-to-day work.
- The IDFG endeavors to provide a safe and healthy working environment for its volunteers and to protect the public and public property from injury or damage. Volunteers will be trained and expected to use safety equipment.
- If we drive our personal vehicles to and from a volunteer project, we certify that the vehicles are properly insured as required by Idaho state law.
